NOVEMBER 2026

MESSAGE
FROM FR. PANAGIOTIS

As we approach Thanksgiving, our thoughts naturally turn to the many blessings in our lives. We gather around tables filled with food, surrounded by family and friends, and take a moment to express our gratitude for all that God has given us. But what if thanksgiving is meant to be more than something we do once a year? What if it is actually one of the most powerful spiritual medicines available to us?

St. Paul instructs us, "In everything give thanks" (1 Thessalonians 5:18). This is because thanksgiving is a way of looking at the world, at our neighbors, and ultimately at God.

One of the greatest obstacles to this way of life is jealousy.

We see someone else's success, possessions, relationships, or opportunities, and suddenly we begin to wonder, "Why not me?" We compare our lives to theirs and begin to feel that somehow we have been shortchanged. Before long, the blessings we once appreciated no longer seem quite so wonderful.

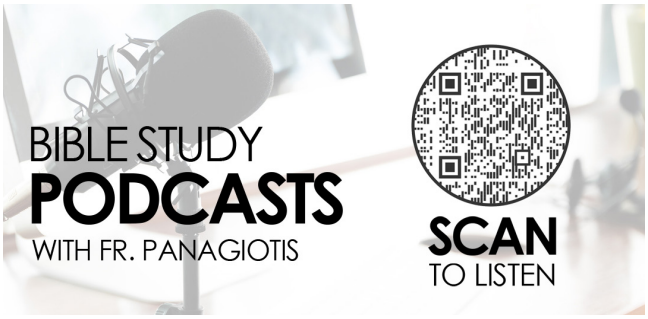

The tragedy of jealousy is that it doesn't actually take anything away from the person we envy. Instead, it robs us of the joy we could have experienced in the blessings God has already given us.

And this is precisely where thanksgiving becomes such a powerful spiritual remedy.

When we deliberately give thanks to God, we shift our attention away from what we lack and toward what we have received. We begin to recognize that everything in our lives is a gift, not something we have earned or are entitled to possess. Even more importantly, we begin to recognize that the blessings given to others are not somehow blessings taken away from us.

God's generosity is not a competition!

Think about how different our relationships would be if, instead of comparing ourselves to one another, we genuinely rejoiced in each other's blessings. What if we could celebrate a neighbor's success, a friend's good fortune, or another family's happiness without feeling that our own lives were somehow diminished?

This is the freedom that thanksgiving offers us.

Of course, gratitude does not mean pretending that life is always easy. We all experience disappointment, hardship, and suffering. But even in those moments, we can give thanks for God's presence, His mercy, and His promise that He will never abandon us.

This November, I encourage each of us to make thanksgiving a daily spiritual practice. Begin each morning by thanking God for three blessings in your life. And perhaps more importantly, when you find yourself feeling jealous of someone else, pause and thank God for the blessings He has given them.

You may be surprised how quickly jealousy begins to lose its grip.

May this Thanksgiving season help us cultivate hearts that are not only grateful for what we have received, but genuinely joyful for what God has given to others.

PARISH COUNCIL

Moving Forward Together

What an exciting time for our St. Athanasios parish family!

Last month, we gathered for our Parish Town Hall to reflect on the blessings of the past three years and look toward the future. It was wonderful to come together, celebrate our progress, and share our hopes for the years ahead.

What encouraged me most wasn't just what we have accomplished, but how many people contribute to the life of our parish. Whether through a ministry, volunteering, giving, welcoming someone new, attending Bible study, participating in a small group or pilgrimage, or simply being present in our community, each of us has a role to play.

And now, we are gearing up for our next chapter!

Father Panagiotis and the Parish Council have been working together on our new three-year vision, beginning in January and carrying us toward 2030. As shared in our August article and at the Town Hall, our goals include continued growth in catechism and spiritual formation, mature stewardship, responsible care of our facilities and land, expanded outreach, pilgrimages, and support for a sister parish.

On November 8, we will gather for our Fall General Assembly to review parish finances, committee updates and reports, and revisit our new vision. I hope you will join us as we discuss the path ahead and explore how each of us can help bring this vision to life.

Thank you to every parishioner, committee and ministry leader, and volunteer who gives so generously to St. Athanasios. I am grateful for all we have accomplished and look forward to all we will accomplish together!

In Christ,
Anna Caniglia
Parish Council President

PHILOPTOCHOS

November is a busy month for Philoptochos! We celebrate the feast day of Sts. Cosmas and Damian, the patron saints of Philoptochos, on November 1st. Besides hosting coffee hour, we will have an artoclasia and memorial to honor and remember our sisters in Christ. We will also be pulling the winning raffle ticket for our Burberry handbag! We hope you will join us to celebrate our sisterhood.

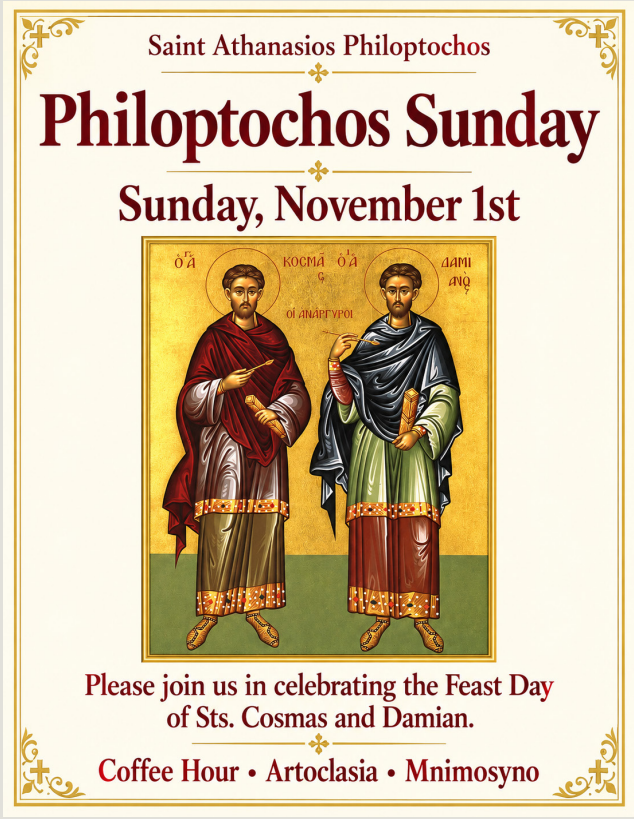

We are introducing Service Project Sunday in November! We have three planned for the coming year. It is an opportunity for the entire parish to come together to help those in need in our community. Our first service project will take place on November 22nd. We are partnering with Ronald McDonald House at Edward Hospital to provide snack bags and toiletry kits for families who need a little extra care and comfort during a challenging time.

Our greatest need right now is monetary donations from our parish community. These donations will allow us to purchase the snacks and toiletry essentials needed to fill the bags. On November 22 we will assemble the snack bags and toiletry kits and share a little kindness with families who need it most.

Look for our Salvation Army Angel Tree in early November. It will be tucked in near the bookstore, laden with 125 gift tags for children in the Fox Valley area. Please take a tag (or two!), purchase the item indicated, and place the unopened gift, with the tag securely attached, under the tree.

I have two 'save the date' events in December. We will have a chapter meeting on Sunday, December 6th. As part of that meeting we will have a Christmas Cookie Recipe exchange! Members are asked to forward one cookie recipe (non-Greek!) for inclusion in our recipe booklet. The booklets will be printed and available at the meeting. You may, if you wish, bring a small plate of cookies to share with other members during coffee hour.

And finally, mark your calendars for Thursday, December 10th, for our annual Christmas Party at the home of Helen Halkias. We will be collecting grocery gift cards for Father Panagiotis to share with those in need in our community.

SOUL SISTERS

This month Soul Sisters will be combined with the Men's Group, where we will be inspired by the life of Saint Herman of Alaska.

Date: November 12th
Time: 7-8:30 p.m.
Place: St. Matthew Hall

Please note there will not be a Soul Sisters gathering in December, we will resume on January 7th.

STEWARDSHIP

Stewardship … Giving Thanks

One of the basic principles of Stewardship is giving thanks to God in response to what he has bestowed upon us by joyfully and sacrificially offering your Time, Talents, and Treasures to Him. Your generosity of your Time, Talents, and Treasures is evident in every aspect of our Parish Community and is one of the cornerstones of our faith. On Sunday, November 15 th , the Stewardship Committee will be hosting a Stewardship Thank You Sunday. Representatives of the Stewardship Committee and Parish Council will address the Parish after Liturgy to thank you for your generosity to God and our Parish, followed by coffee hour in St. Mathew's Hall.

Every act of giving your Time, Talents and Treasures, no matter what it is, makes a difference. The Church's mission of salvation and evangelism depends directly on your generosity. Stewardship is vital to our church and, among many other things, it helps to:

- Provide religious services and sacraments
- Provide visitations to the hospitalized and shut-ins
- Minister to the community outside of our church walls
- Offer help and support to those in need
- Support those who serve us
- Support our Metropolis
- Keep our church grounds and buildings in good condition
- Support the various Church ministries for all groups within our community

As we have said many times before, Stewardship is the lifeblood of our Parish, ensuring that our ministries thrive, our mission expands, and our Church remains a source of faith and community. Thank you again for your generosity and we look forward to seeing you on the 15th.

Also, within this issue of the Champion, we would like to recognize our current Stewards who have pledged their support to our beloved Parish.

In His Service,
St. Athanasios Stewardship Ministry

BOOK STORE

November brings many saint feast days to celebrate and also the start of the Nativity Fast on November 15. To help with this 40-day spiritual and physical preparation for the birth of Christ (Christmas), our Bookstore has books that can help with your meal planning and the reasons why we abstain from meat, dairy, fish, olive oil, and wine on designated days, paired with increased prayer and almsgiving. November 21 also celebrates the Entrance of the Theotokos into the Temple, one of the 12 Great Feasts of the Church, when the Virgin Mary, at three years old, was brought to Jerusalem by her parents, Joachim and Anna. On this date, seed and lentil dishes are traditionally prepared and consumed. Stop in our Bookstore to see the many Theotokos icons to purchase along with books that describe her life.

DID YOU KNOW...?

The Holy Anaphora - The Triumphal Hymn

The priest silently reads the prayer of the Holy Anaphora. With it he thanks God for His infinite blessings, both known and unknown. He thanks God for His infinite blessings, both known and unknown. He thanks God for the Divine Liturgy itself, which He receives from mankind, though He is surrounded by a myriad of angels who chant the Triumphal Hymn to Him. The priest exclaims the last phrase in a loud voice, inviting us to chant this hymn along with the angels: Holy, holy, holy, Lord of Sabaoth [hosts], heaven and earth are full of Your glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is He that comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest. The Hymn that is sung at this time is called "Triumphal," because it praises Jesus Christ's victory over death and the Devil.
